-- Only comScore Provides the Official Global Movie Results --

LOS ANGELES, April 17, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- comScore (NASDAQ: SCOR) today announced the official worldwide weekend box office estimates for the weekend of April 17, 2016, as compiled by the company's theatrical measurement services.

As the trusted official standard for real-time worldwide box office reporting, comScore provides the only theater-level reporting in the world. Customers are able to analyze admissions and gross results around the world using comScore's suite of products.

comScore's Senior Media Analyst Paul Dergarabedian commented, "Disney made it rumble in the jungle at the global box office this weekend as 'The Jungle Book' earns an amazing $240 million, including $103.6 million in its number one North America debut, making it the second largest April opening in history and the highest April opening for a PG-rated release. Internationally, following a successful opening last weekend in a handful of territories, the film enjoyed an estimated weekend of $136.1 million, including a great 3-day $50.3 million start in China. This puts the film at $290.967 million to date."
