On February 29, 2016, comScore, Inc. (the "Company") filed with the SEC a Form 12b-25, Notification of Late Filing, with regard to its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 (the "Form 10-K") because the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors (the "Audit Committee") had not finalized an ongoing review of certain potential accounting matters with the assistance of independent counsel and advisors. The Audit Committee continues to work vigorously with its independent counsel and advisors to complete its internal review as soon as possible. On March 5, 2016, however, the Audit Committee advised the Company's Board of Directors that it did not expect to finalize its review before March 15, 2016. As a result, the Company has not finalized its financial statements pending completion of the review, and the Company is not in a position to file its Form 10-K until after the Audit Committee completes its review and the Company's independent public accountants assess the conclusions of the Audit Committee in connection with their audit of the Company's annual financial statements included in the Form 10-K.

The Company proactively contacted the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission regarding the Audit Committee's internal review. The Company does not expect to make further comment regarding the Audit Committee's review until its conclusion.
