Item 8.01 Other Events.

On September 10, 2020, comScore, Inc. (the “Company”) determined to pay at least 50 percent of the interest due on October 1, 2020 with respect to its senior secured convertible notes (the “Notes”) in cash, with the remainder to be paid in shares of the Company’s common stock. The election to pay a portion of the interest in common stock was largely due to continued uncertainty regarding the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the Company’s customers, particularly in its Movies Reporting and Analytics business, where customers have been hard-hit by movie theater closures across the globe. While the movies industry has shown recent signs of recovery, with theaters reopening in the United States and abroad and consumers responding well to COVID-19 safety precautions, uncertainty regarding the duration of the pandemic and related government mandates led the Company to take a more conservative position with respect to the October interest payment. The Company will continue to monitor performance through the month of September and may seek consent from the Notes holders to pay a higher proportion of interest in cash on October 1 if conditions warrant.
